LINK TO RISE ON FIRE TEACHING VIDEO: <https://youtu.be/a6KkkezffAQ>

This list is a simple and concise presentation of New Testament commandments, utilized to accompany the above Rise on Fire video as a reference guide. Because commandments are listed outside their original context, you are encouraged to read each reference in context of the rest of Scripture for an accurate understanding of each commandment.

This list is not an attempt to calculate an official "number of commandments", nor do we claim that this is a list where every commandment is represented, or perfectly represented. Only the pure reading of scripture allows for that. This is simply a tool for your edification, to draw you back to the Scriptures for deeper study.

This list is an adaptation of a list originally created by Finis Jennings Dake using the KJV as source material. Rise on Fire is not affiliated. Some of the commandments in this list may repeat, depending on context and categorization. The KJV & ESV translations were used as a source of wording for this list.

We hope this is a blessing to you!

The New Testament Commandments

This list of New Testament commandments have been compiled from various sources, and hope to present the New Testament commandments in a simple form. Because they are listed outside their original context, you are encouraged to read each reference in context for an accurate understanding of each commandment.

This list is not an attempt to calculate an official "number of commandments", nor do we claim that this is a perfect list where every commandment is represented. This is simply a tool for your edification.
